Supreme Location & Ocean Views

Tucked away at the top of one of Binningup's quietest streets, you need to come inside this home to explore the different levels that make up this lovely home and its surrounding gardens.

The perfect home for empty nesters that have frequent visits from family or friends, there is plenty of space for accommodating lots of visitors at the one time, and plenty of room inside and out for entertaining.

On the main level you will find a wide tiled entry with a lovely lounge on the left hand side. Complete with recessed ceiling this stylish lounge adjoins a substantial dining area with a sliding door out onto the side deck.

The kitchen and family area is located at the back of the home where a large window and sliding doors allow you to catch views of the ocean to the north west. With a large fridge recess, two built in pantries, dishwasher, overhead cupboards and a good sized breakfast ba
