

220 Bangadang Road Queenwood, WA

THIS IS A RARE GEM - 317 ACRES

On occasions you are privileged to list a truly magnificent property, and this is one of those occasions.

Complimenting this exceptional rural property is :

- A modern 4 stand shearing shed with yards.
- A very large machinery shed in new condition.
- An older farmhouse with surrounding sheds.
- Fencing in very good condition.

I recommend anyone looking for a great rural property to come and view this before it gets snapped up.
